The action was unquestionably beneficial from every standpoint to the whole nation; but the greatest benefit conferred was upon the section of the South, especially Northern Alabama, which was most intimately and permanently affected.

Where the Law Fails.

They sold munitions to our enemies at women.

But it is to laugh at the complaint that we are supplying the allies with munitions when they, the poor Germans, are unable to get them on account of the sea blockade. Why, what do they want of more? For the past twenty-five or thirty years Germany has been stocking up with something like 75 per cent of the output of America and American public opinion a distinction and a difference. For nowhere on earth has public opinion so much light that we are supplying the allies with munitions when they, the poor Germans, are unable to get them on account of the sea blockade. Why, what do they want of more? For the past twenty-five or thirty years Germany has been stocking up with clean conscience and clean lands it is like water on a duck's back.
